Michal Rubens (b. 1980, Israel) grew up in Kibbutz Grofit and lives and works in Potsdam, Germany.

She graduated from the Midrasha School of Art, Beit Berl, and holds an M.A.A.T in Art Therapy from the University of Haifa.

Rubens's figurative paintings present scenes in which figures and environments are closely intertwined. While her images may appear simple or almost naïve, they carry a sense of vulnerability and unease. Through color, repetition, and shifting scale, the works open spaces that are both intimate and unstable, allowing multiple readings.

Rubens has exhibited in solo and group exhibitions in Israel and Germany.
